

Important information to consider when choosing your course

MSc Sport and Exercise Psychology (Online)

When students are considering applying for the MSc Sport and Exercise Psychology they should be aware of the following:

- Students will study online. This will include a mixture of online seminars and workshops, self-paced learning tasks, group forum activities and video tutorials. Students will receive support from unit leads, personal tutor, and course lead.
- For the MSc Sport and Exercise Psychology course the pass mark is 50%

How the course is taught

- Online learning delivery modes include: online seminars and workshops, self-paced learning tasks, (including video bites and quizzes) group forum activities, video tutorials, and the opportunity to engage in remote skill development.
- The course utilises a range of contemporary approaches to assessing learning, whilst also seeking to develop key applied skills and communication approaches. So alongside more traditional dissertation-style and essay assessments students will also write blogs, produce short videos, engage with social media, write consultancy reports, engage in role plays and debates.

Additional Costs

Additional costs are mandatory or optional costs which students will need to meet in order to fully participate in and complete their course. Students will need to budget for these costs separately as they are not included in the overall Tuition Fee they are charged.

- On successful completion of the course students have the option to attend the graduation ceremony. Students choosing to attend must meet the cost of hiring academic dress for the ceremony; wearing of academic dress at the ceremony is compulsory. The academic dress is provided by an external company. In 2022 the hire cost was £38. There are no other charges to the graduate for the graduation ceremony. However, additional tickets for family members and friends are chargeable and you will be advised of the price when you are invited to graduation.
- You will be provided with transcripts for each year of study along with a diploma supplement and degree certificate upon completion of your course of study. If you require a replacement of any of these documents there will be a fee payable as set out below:
 - Transcript (per academic year): £10
 - Degree Certificate: £40

- Diploma Supplement: £10

Where 2022-23 prices are quoted these costs are not expected to increase by any substantial amount for 2023-24.
