

Authentic

AECC is the original acronym from when we were the Anglo-European College of Chiropractic. In the new name AECC University College, it is no longer an acronym but a link between our illustrious past and our exciting future.

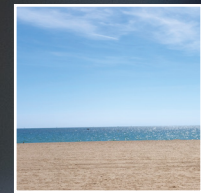

The motif sits atop the entrance of our main building and reflects other decorative styles throughout the campus.

Celebratory

The triangle patterns are taken from the beautiful Victorian tiled floors.

The waves reflect our stunning location minutes from the beaches and sea.

From our past, for our future