

Important information to take into account when choosing your course

- MSc Physiotherapy (pre-registration)

Recruitment Process

Helping your application succeed

Experience

Experience of interacting with members of the public from a range of backgrounds in different settings is essential when applying to the MSc Physiotherapy (pre-registration). It is important to be able to understand and explain how your experiences relate to the activities and qualities which are required of physiotherapists. The NHS values are key to the selection process. This is to ensure we recruit the right students with the right values, to ensure the delivery of excellent patient care. All aspects of the interview are aligned with the core values of the NHS constitution. These NHS values are:

- Working together for patients
- Respect and dignity
- Commitment to quality of care
- Compassion
- Improving lives
- Everyone counts

For further information on the standards required of students in the allied health professions please take a look at the Health and Care professions code of conduct and ethics.

<https://www.hcpc-uk.org/standards/standards-of-conduct-performance-and-ethics/>

There are many ways you can gain experience - this might be as part of a programme of study or in a paid or voluntary capacity and doesn't always need to be within a care setting. Interacting with people with different life experiences will help you develop a deeper level of understanding of the diversity of the population who access health and social care. In your personal statement please reflect upon your learning from any of these experiences demonstrating an understanding of the physiotherapy profession and a genuine, reasoned commitment to studying the MSc physiotherapy (pre-registration) course.

Interviews

If you are shortlisted, we will invite you to an interview day and you should bring a passport or photo driving license with you. Other important information

When students are considering applying for the MSc Physiotherapy (pre-registration) they should be aware of the following:

- During practical classes students will be expected to practice physical examination and therapy skills using other students in their course group as subjects, and to act as a subject for other students. These are mixed gender groups. As well as physical contact with other students this also involves undressing down to underwear leaving the underwear on (short lycra shorts and tank tops may be worn). Students may purchase a treatment gown to wear, if they are uncomfortable wearing only their underwear/ shorts
- Students should discuss any concerns about this with us before making an application for the course or accepting an offer of a place. If the concerns relate to issues covered by the Equality Act 2010 (such as religion, disability, gender reassignment) we will be pleased to discuss with the student how reasonable adjustments can be made to enable them to study on the course; however the University College can only make adjustments where this will not interfere with the student's ability to demonstrate that they have met the learning outcomes for the course, and meet the requirements of relevant Professional Statutory and Regulatory Bodies (PSRBs). Please contact admissions@aecc.ac.uk
- Annually, students are required to complete a questionnaire about their health; if any issues are identified students may not be able to act as subjects in practical classes, as above.
- Students are required to declare any criminal records and changes in their criminal record as soon as they occur, i.e. if they have been cautioned, reprimanded, warned, charged or convicted in relation to any criminal activity.
- Students will be expected to dress appropriately for practical classes and when representing the University College in the local community and on placements.
- There are a number of items which students will be required or are recommended to purchase in order to get the maximum benefit from the course; see below under 'additional costs'.
- Students are responsible for making their own accommodation arrangements while enrolled at the University College. The Student Services team can offer advice and assistance in finding private rented accommodation in the area.

Additional costs

Additional costs are mandatory or optional costs which students will need to meet in order to fully participate in and complete their course. Students will need to budget for these costs separately as they are not included in the overall Tuition Fee they are charged.

 2. 8" Plastic Goniometer £7.00 (approx) and a tape measure. Stethoscopes and Goniometers are available from a number of online suppliers including Amazon, Medisave and Physiotherapy store.

- Practice Placements will incur costs and students need to plan for this in their annual budget. Typically, these costs are for travel and, if necessary, accommodation to access placement. The amount of money involved will depend on the site of the placement, distance from home, and the type and length of placement. Costs of several hundred pounds can be expected, and exceptionally over £1000 per year. Students may claim placement travel expenses, and costs towards any additional accommodation that may be required in order to access placements. You are required to successfully complete 1000 hours of practice placement. Over the two years of the programme you will complete six assessed practice placements. You will need to budget for the additional costs of placement which may include travel and / or accommodation costs.

- Currently, the NHS provides some reimbursement of additional placement costs to eligible students through the learning support fund. More information about this can be found at: <https://www.nhsbsa.nhs.uk/learning-support-fund/about-learning-support-fund> Students will be required to practice clinical skills using each other as models, and so will need clothing which is suitable for practical sessions whilst in University College. You may wish to purchase additional items of uniform and you will need to replace any lost or damaged items from the University's official supplier. Approximate costs of these are: £12 for either tops or trousers.

- Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check at the start of your course, you will complete an enhanced criminal record check through the Disclosure and Barring Services. This needs to be paid for by you. If you suspend your studies for a year or more you will also have to pay for a new criminal records check.
