

Tuition Fee information for continuing students (2021-22)

Payment Terms

The University College relies on student fees to meet its financial commitments. It is essential that you pay your fees promptly and in accordance with published details. The University College reviews its fees and fees policy annually.

When you complete your online registration form the amount of your tuition fees will be shown together with various options on how you are intending to pay these.

If you do not believe that the fees are correct please contact the University College's Admissions Department on admissions@aecc.ac.uk before finishing the online process.

Undergraduate Students

- Payment (UK Tuition Fee Loan)

Tuition fees for the undergraduate courses are either £9,000 or £9,250 per academic year depending on when you started your course

If you are getting a tuition fee loan from the UK Government's Student Loan Company please choose the appropriate option during the online registration process.

If you have not yet applied for your Loan this must be done as soon as possible by going to: <https://www.gov.uk/student-finance>

- Payment (Self-funded students)

Undergraduate funded (UK and EU) Students tuition fees are either £9,000 or £9,250 per academic year depending on when you started your course.

How to pay

You can pay by:-

- Bank Transfer (the University College's bank details are given in the link below)
- Credit or debit card only by arrangement. Please email studentfinance@aecc.ac.uk for further details. Please note that the University College does not accept American Express.

We are no longer able to accept payment by cheque or cash.

Sponsorships (part time postgraduate students only):-

if your fees are being paid by your employer, or any other third party sponsor, and they require an invoice to be sent to them, both you and your sponsor need to complete a Sponsorship Authorisation Form. This must be returned to the Student Finance office at least 14 days before the start of your course.
